Welcome to our Winter 1997/98 list. Once again we are pleased to present a fine selection of United States coin auction catalogues from several hundred different cataloguers. One highlight in particular is the wonderful assortment of Nineteenth century sales. This is perhaps the largest offering of these early sales ever offered at fixed prices. We have described some of the more interesting items and tidbits found inside these pioneering efforts. We hope it adds something to your understanding of early American numismatics.

In addition to the catalogues, you will find a good selection of reference books. Both worldwide and U.S. material are well represented. There is also an interesting run of "Graysheets" going back to the mid-1960's, before they were gray. These offer a great way to chart the past bear and bull markets.

Response to our Buy or Bid sale was quite positive. Many of you enjoyed the format, so we are expanding our catalogue "highlights" to this list as well. Eventually we hope to cover all major sales in this fashion. Your comments are welcome.

Speaking of comments, throughout this catalogue you will find various unsolicited excerpts from the many letters we receive. It's gratifying to know that what we do is helping others to enjoy this captivating hobby of ours. We will continue this in our future lists, as we only have room for a few each time. Naturally, we weren't able to quote some of the enjoyable phone conversations that are always most welcome.

Market-wise the literature business is healthy and growing day by day. As prices continue their upward march, it just makes sense to learn as much as possible about issues of interest before the next buying opportunity comes along.

We have noticed a substantial increase of coin dealer involvement in researching old auction catalogues. The biggest demand has been for the U.S. Gold Coin catalogue (Eliasberg) by Bowers and Ruddy, sold in 1982. Fortunately for the quality conscious buyer, we still have a limited number of copies available in Near Mint condition. Once they are sold, there will be no more available. We have the only leftover supply of new sales from Bowers & Ruddy Galleries.

Many items listed are one of a kind so don't delay if you see something of interest. Our inventory is continuously changing. If there's a certain sale you're looking for and it's not listed, let us know. As always, we say "THANKS" to everyone who's sent an order our way. We appreciate the opportunity to serve you.

As you can see by examining the letterhead, we are now in sunny Arizona for the winter. Please note our present address and telephone number. We will be here until April 1, 1998, at which time we will again head north to Idaho. (Ain't Snowbirds lucky!)

Warmest regards,

Karl & Jenny Moulton

THE CATALOGUES OF Q. DAVID BOWERS

Bowers & Ruddy Galleries, in Hollywood, California, named their auction division the American Auction Association; the first eleven sales bear this name. A strong beginning with the Armand Champa Sale in 1972 led to success after success.

The four part Garrett Sales, 1979 – '81, realized $25.4 million dollars. This was the record for an American coin auction for 16 years, until April 8, 1997, when the second Eliasberg Sale was completed. This new record will stand as a milestone for decades to come. The Bowers catalogues are indeed the premier sales by which all others are judged.

Great American Sales has acquired the remaining catalogue stock of Bowers & Ruddy Galleries from when Dave left California in 1982. In 1983, after Jim Ruddy's retirement from numismatics, Dave and long-time employee Ray Merena formed Bowers & Merena Galleries in Wolfeboro, NH.

02/25/92 Trompeter Gold, 238pp., 209 Lots, A spectacular offering of Proof and Mint State U.S. Gold coins of all denominations. The catalogue displays one coin, plated in color, per page. The photography is absolutely stunning. Only the material offered is more impressive. Gold $1 Proofs begin in 1855 and contain many pedigreed, condition census examples. The Proof Quarter Eagles begin in 1856 and end in 1915 with all the Matte Proof issues. The $3 Gold Proofs begin with 1854 and includes the 1875. There is a complete set of the four different varieties of Proof Stellas. Also, Bickford's 1874 International $10 Gold Piece is included, with pedigree. The 1879 Quintuple Stella is catalogued as the finest known. The true highlights are the complete sets of Indian Head Quarter Eagles, Half Eagles, and Eagles in Choice Uncirculated condition. There was to be a Part II; however, the heirs withdrew the balance of the collection after the catalogue had been readied for the printer, based in part on the advice of one of Superior's competitors. Perhaps someday the rest of "E.T.'s" collection will cross the auction block.	PR 35.

NINETEENTH CENTURY AUCTION CATALOGUES

These sales represent the core of American numismatics. The first coin auction of note was the Lewis Roper Sale in 1851. By the end of the 1850's many collectors were active from Philadelphia to Boston. The big market was in Proof sets, thanks to a friendly mint director who was happy to oblige any and all orders – including himself. These early collectors sold their duplicates, and acquired missing pieces to help fill in their collections by bidding in auction sales, just like now.

Names like McCoy, Mickley, Cohen, Jenks, Stickney, Garrett, etc. are remembered today; and any coins accurately pedigreed are highly prized items indeed. Interestingly, the collector of this time did not focus on top quality type coins. His main interest was apt to be U.S. & World Medals, George Washington items, Early Copper, Tokens, Ancients, and Colonials.

Dealers like Ed Cogan, W.E. Woodward, William Strobridge, A.B. Sage, Ebenezer Mason, John Haseltine, Ed Frossard, Sigismund Harzfeld, the Chapman brothers, H.P. Smith, H.G. Sampson, David Proskey, George Massamore, and Charles Steigerwalt all presented many fine auction sales. At times there were more than 60 combined sales by the dealers listed above in a single year. That's more than one sale per week! Public disputes such as Cogan vs Mason, Frossard vs Woodward, Harzfeld vs the U.S. Mint, and virtually everyone vs the Chapman's cataloguing the Bushnell sale, all added spicy ingredients to the marketplace. It was truly an interesting time in American numismatics.

It's due in part to several hoards of catalogues that we have any selection available today. The opportunity to acquire these catalogues at today's prices is reminiscent of when I was a young coin dealer in the late 1960's. Uncirculated silver dollars were going begging at $60 per roll. There were thousands available from the treasury hoard and silver was still $1.29 an ounce. No one wanted the things due to their weight. I still remember seeing Record Coin Shop ads (John Love) listing virtually everything at less than $20 each.

Here's the good news: these Nineteenth Century sales are in the same situation price-wise as those Morgan and Peace dollars were 30 years ago ---- and they weigh a whole lot less. When the rarity factor is figured with less than 200 extant of any given sale, and in some cases much less, their desirability becomes self evident.

Collecting these early sales is challenging, but not really expensive. It takes a certain amount of background research to learn the differences between the good ones and not-so-good ones. Fortunately, there is excellent literature available should you have an interest. It's an exciting adventure trying to complete a set from any one of these pioneer dealers. This writer has been enjoying this form of bibliomania for years now. Today there are approximately a half dozen dealers that conduct literature mail bid sales. Only a very few dealers issue fixed price lists such as the one you are now reading.

The following selection provides you with an opportunity to choose a 100+ year old coin sale at a price that will seem reasonable, if not downright cheap, when we reach the 21st century. You, too, can join in the fun. We will be happy to offer opinions, insights, and answers to any questions that come our way. Now, on to the goodies.....

Many of these early sales show their age in slightly ragged edges, stained paper, thin spines, and occasional notations. 10/22/1878 Clemens, 101pp., 2212 Lots. James Clemens of St. Louis, MO was a major buyer at the 1867 Mickley sale. Many prized items found in this sale can be pedigreed to Mickley. This writer has been searching for a named copy of this particular sale for many years without success (will pay handsomely for a priced and named copy). Choice items include: 1794 Dollar @ $35, 2- 1796 Halves @ $39 & $40, 2- 1797 Halves @ $19 & $20, 1836 Proof Half @ $12.50, 1838-O Proof Half @ $15, 1820 & '21 Proof Quarters @ $13 each, 1804 Dime @ $9, 1794 Half Dime- Beautiful UNC. @ $17 (catalogued as Proof by Woodward in the Mickely sale), 1797 16-Stars Half Dime- "Almost Proof" @ $25, 1855 Proof 3-Cent Piece @ $5, 1844 "Denver Mint" Half Eagle (Cogan was way ahead on this one), 1796 Half Cent @ $32. Also included is a large assortment of World Coins & Medals; plus 5 sets of Postal Currency. A most important sale; vastly under-rated..... HWP 95.

12/16/1878 Root, 71pp., 1633 Lots (Faded Front Cover, w/Blue China Marker Writing). Root was one of the earliest collectors. He concentrated on top quality coins. This fine collection includes a 1794 Dollar @ $40, many Proof Seated Dollars, 1796 Half – PL-UNC @ $55, 1797 Half "far superior to those offered in the Clemens sale" @ $37, 1815 Half-UNC @ $20, 1793 Wreath Cent-UNC @ $42, 1793 Chain Cent – Ex Mickley – "Perfectly UNC" @ $170, 1795 Thick Planchet Cent @ $102, 1799 Cent @ $20.50, 1793 Half Cent-UNC @ $16, 1831 Proof Cent @ $11, 1804 Quarter (catalogued as finest known**), 1827 Proof Quarter @ $52.50, 1797 Dime-UNC @ $40, 1794 Half Dime-UNC @ $12, 1858 Proof Set @ $53, Patterns, Colonials, & World Coins.

**Ed Cogan purchased this quarter at the 1875 Stenz sale by W.H. Strobridge for $150 and sold it to Root --- presumably at a profit. It sold here for the super low price of just $35. Eventually it ended up in the Garrett collection. When the Garrett sales took place nearly twenty years ago, this coin brought $80,000. This date has approximately half a dozen pieces known in uncirculated. Because of the strike and proof-like surfaces, I believe this one to be THE finest example of the date, even better than the example sold by Merkin, though it has not been given the highest numerical value according to the Sheldon grading scale. The coin has never been in circulation, but the mirror surfaces magnify the cabinet friction, making it more apparent than on the frosty Uncs..... HWP 90.

NOTE: In this sale Smith is uncertain what the underlying digit in the 1815 Half actually is. He postulates it could be a "2" or a "3". Today numismatists describe it as a "5" over "2" based in part on the description that John Haseltine had used six weeks earlier in his Type Table sale (even he was not certain). However, since it does not match any known 1812 obverse die, and since there were no new numeral and letter punches delivered between 1812 and 1815, this writer believes it to be an upside down "5" punched in error by the then 75 year old, inept, engraver Robert Scot. This theory is based on extensive research conducted on early mint personnel. Any conclusive evidence would be welcome.

03/09/1886 Charles White Pt. I, 20pp., 506 Lots (Printed in red ink). Mr. White, one time cashier at the Northampton Bank, was a hoarder of early quarters, among other things. This writer is actively researching material for a forthcoming book on early quarters and discovered this hoard. Information was sent to Q. David Bowers for his book "American Coin Treasures and Hoards". Dave did a most interesting write-up, as usual (see pg. 75-78). A good number of today's uncirculated early coins came from this important sale. Offerings include 1798/7 Dime – UNC., 1805 Quarter – UNC. (two nicks in field – bought by Byron Reed, now owned by this writer), 1807 Quarter – UNC. (second ever offered in UNC.), 1818 Quarter Plain Edge – UNC. (unlocated today), 1796 & '97 Halves, 1820 over 18 Bust Half – first described (unlocated today), 1840 Large Letter Reverse Half – correctly attributed to the New Orleans die (see Bowers & Merena Eliasberg II sale 04/1997, pg. 216); Choice Copper, 1846-O PL Dollar @ 1.25. Smith's last sale under his own name. Apparently, he made a sizeable profit on the Smith Collection Part I & II. This enabled him to establish the New York Coin & Stamp Co. with David Proskey the following year. It's theorized that Smith bankrolled NYC&S while Proskey did the cataloguing. During the first four years they were together, they handled the entire spectrum of U.S. numismatics.....HWP 45.

LET'S TALK LITERATURE

For many of us the mention of the word literature brings back shades of sitting in a high school or college classroom trying to understand the meanings of the works of Shakespeare, Dickens, and Milton. For many, this was not an enjoyable experience.

It is a continuing source of bewilderment why more of today's collectors, dealers and investors do not actively engage themselves in acquiring numismatic literature. Perhaps it is due to the above scenario. Whatever the reason, the percentage is a tiny one. Those that do acquire are the smart ones.

Let's look at the role literature plays in numismatics. In the beginning most people want to know about prices and/or market values. They visit a coin shop or a coin show and end up purchasing a "Redbook" or one of the weekly newspapers pertaining to coins -- which also list retail prices. This is the cornerstone of numismatic knowledge. Since all knowledge is acquired, it helps everyone involved when the customer knows enough to understand values and pricing on certain items of interest.

Later, as more information is assimilated, the person usually expands into selected areas of interest, searching for varieties and/or perhaps becoming a dealer. More literature is needed for each step of the way. Go to any coin show and just try to find a dealer that doesn't need to have the latest weekly price guide when you want to sell a few coins. They are few and far between -- if you can find one!

Perhaps the best way to understand the coin hobby of today is to learn about the past. Not just ten years ago, but 100 years ago and beyond that, back to the very beginnings of pre-federation coinage. Old auction catalogues are one of the best, and least expensive, ways you can accomplish this. You can use catalogues to research pedigrees, number of appearances on specific dates, chart prices throughout the years, compare plates, check for scarce varieties, track the first appearances, learn about counterfeits, and so forth.

We at Great American Sales offer one of the finest selections of old auction catalogues to be found anywhere. Most are priced lower than going out for dinner! The catalogues are definitely collectible, and have a lasting value. They will add greatly to your numismatic knowledge and we know you will have fun going through these fascinating sales over and over again.

PERIODICALS

COIN WHOLESALER:	Edited by the first editor of Coin World, Dick Johnson. An interesting weekly with ads from such firms as Empire Coin Co., Capital Plastics, Regency Coin and Stamp, Whitman Publishing, Coin World, and Bebee's. Also news of the Treasury hoard release of "O"-Mint dollars. 11 Different Issues -- Sept. 1963 to Dec. 1963 .....	25.
PACE:	Numismatic Financial News Weekly -- A coin investment newspaper averaging 16 pages. Insiders reports on Treasury Secretary Dillon's silver dollar release dilemmas and the probability of the 1964 Peace Dollar being minted. They were struck, but so far none have surfaced into the fringes of numismatic channels. Besides, the Feds would only confiscate it anyway. Historically important. 10 Different Issues -- Jan. '64 to April '64 .....	35.
COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER:	The "Graysheet" started in 1963 along with several other attempts at weekly pricing guides in a fast paced market. The early years were printed on buff colored paper and those few that were saved are all scarce. We have only one large lot of over 700 different issues starting in the mid-1960's. Also included are many monthly summaries beginning in 1976, which contain in-depth articles on the different issues of U.S. Numismatics.....	275.
